FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Does owning a property and being liable for mortgage payments mean the same thing?

No. You can be the property owner without being liable for making payments. However, the property is still subject to the terms of the mortgage, and payments should be made to keep the loan in good standing.

Can I get IRS Form 1098 in my name and Social Security number?

Yes. If you don't already get Form 1098 in your name, we will take care of that for you after you submit the documents mentioned in this kit.

What are my options if I am having trouble making payments on the loan?

Please call us so we can discuss your options. If you just stop making full payments, the loan will go into default status, and you could lose the property. If you expect difficulties making payments, call us to see what assistance options we offer.

Can I provide photocopies of the documents you are requesting?

Yes, we will accept copies of the death certificate and the cover letter. If you're having trouble finding the death certificate, we may be able to help you locate it. Please call us.

Do you charge a fee for making changes following the death of a customer(s)?

No.

What if I still have questions about how to manage my account?

Please call us at 1-866-299-6752; we accept operator relay calls. Or you can send us a message through the message center on chase.com.
