GENERAL/BACKGROUND

This Disclosure Statement contains information about the services that J.P. Morgan Securities LLC (“JPMS”) offers to your retirement plan, as well as the compensation JPMS and its affiliates reasonably expect to receive with regard to those services. The information is being provided to you, as a retirement plan fiduciary, in connection with the Department of Labor’s regulation (the “Regulation”) under section 408(b)(2) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (“ERISA”), and is intended to assist you in determining the reasonableness of your plan’s contracts or arrangements with JPMS, including the reasonableness of JPMS’s compensation, and potential conflicts of interest. Please carefully review this information.

SERVICES PROVIDED

Disclosures contained herein apply to the “covered services” provided by JPMS and/or JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. (“JPMCB NA”), as applicable, which are affiliates of JPMorgan Chase & Co. (We refer to JPMS, JPMCB NA, JPMorgan Chase & Co. and their affiliates collectively as “J.P. Morgan.”) Such services are fully described in the agreements entered into and other related documentation you receive at the time you open the plan’s account(s) (and any amendments you may receive thereafter), as referenced below. Of course, you may request another copy of these agreements (and amendments) at any time.

Brokerage Accounts

JPMS provides brokerage services (in both “Self-Directed Investing” and “Full Service” brokerage accounts) to retirement plans as described in the J.P. Morgan Self-Directed Investing Disclosures & Brokerage Account Agreement (for Self-Directed Investing accounts) or in the J.P. Morgan Investment Account Agreements and Disclosures Booklet (for Full Service brokerage accounts), as applicable, and handles the brokerage and related functions for your account. This may include but is not limited to holding securities and cash, executing, clearing and settling transactions, collecting and processing dividends, issuing buy and sell confirmations and client statements and looking after the various details incidental to the clearing and carrying of brokerage accounts. Unless you have specified otherwise, JPMS will act as custodian of the property in these brokerage accounts. For additional information regarding the services JPMS provides with respect to brokerage accounts, please refer to your account agreement or other applicable service-related documents, any of which may be amended from time to time. You may request additional copies of these agreements or other documents at any time.

Investment Advisory Accounts

JPMS offers a number of investment advisory account programs (“Programs”) to its retirement plan clients, including J.P. Morgan Core Advisory Portfolio (“JPMCAP”), Chase Strategic Portfolio (“CSP”) program that was soft-closed in January 2016, Mutual Fund Advisory Portfolio (“MFAP”), Fixed Income Advisory Program (“FIAP”) and the Advisory Program (“AP”). Full details of the services that JPMS provides in connection with the Programs, and the fees associated with the Programs, are provided in the client agreement and Form ADV Disclosure Brochure (“Program Brochure”). Current copies of the Program Brochure are available free of charge online at <https://www.chase.com/personal/investments/managed-account-disclosures> or from your J.P. Morgan Advisor(s).

Information regarding the specific fees payable by your plan to JPMS for these services is available on your account statements. Your advisor can provide your plan’s specific Program fee information or a copy of the client agreement at any time.

COMPENSATION

Under the Regulation, we are required to disclose so-called “direct compensation” JPMS or its affiliates receives from your plan. We are also required to disclose “indirect compensation,” which is generally defined to include compensation JPMS or its affiliates receive from any source other than your covered plan or the plan sponsor. For example, JPMS or its affiliates may earn indirect compensation from clients’ investments in mutual funds, or through arrangements with investment managers and other service providers (including investment managers and service providers that are affiliated with JPMS). JPMS may receive such indirect compensation in connection with the applicable services described herein and in the plan’s account agreements, as indicated above. The sections below describe the compensation that may be earned in connection with various services and investments that JPMS may make available to retirement plan clients through brokerage and investment advisory accounts.

FIDUCIARY/INVESTMENT ADVISORY STATUS

Status Under ERISA

JPMS provides services as a fiduciary under ERISA in each of the Programs, as described in the relevant investment advisory program documents that clients receive before opening an investment advisory account with JPMS (as amended from time to time). Similarly, whether or not any third-party portfolio managers (which may include affiliates of JPMS) available in the JPMCAP, CSP, MFAP, FIAP, and AP programs are providing any services as a fiduciary under ERISA is described in the relevant program client agreement (as amended). Pursuant to certain arrangements between JPMS and any third-party portfolio managers (which may include affiliates of JPMS), such portfolio managers may also be required to notify you directly if they are providing services to your plan as an ERISA fiduciary.

Furthermore, when we provide “investment advice” to you regarding your qualified retirement plan account(s) (within the meaning of ERISA) outside of the investment advisory programs referenced above, we are fiduciaries under that law governing such accounts. The way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests, so when providing such investment advice, including rollover and transfer recommendations for your plan account(s) and investment recommendations for your Full Service brokerage plan account(s), we operate under a special rule requiring us to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. Under this special rule’s provisions, we must:

- Meet a professional standard of care when making investment recommendations (give prudent advice)
- Never put our financial interests ahead of yours when making investment recommendations (give loyal advice)
- Avoid misleading statements about conflicts of interest, fees, and investments
- Follow policies and procedures designed to ensure that we give advice that is in your best interest
- Charge no more than is reasonable for our services
- Give you basic information about conflicts of interest

On the other hand, JPMS does not act as a discretionary manager or provide investment advice (within the meaning of ERISA) in connection with its provision of Self-Directed Investing brokerage services. Therefore, JPMS is not considered a fiduciary under ERISA when providing such services.

Status Under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 and State Law

JPMS is dually registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission as a broker-dealer and investment adviser. Accordingly, JPMS acts as an investment adviser registered under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended (“Advisers Act”) in connection with the investment advisory services it provides in its Programs (described above), but not with respect to any of the services it provides to brokerage accounts. Similarly, all of the third-party portfolio managers (which may include affiliates of JPMS) available in the JPMCAP, CSP, MFAP, FIAP, and AP programs act as investment advisers registered under the Advisers Act in connection with the portfolio management services they provide in such programs.

CHANGES

You should expect to receive periodic notices or other communications regarding changes, if any, to the compensation and service information described herein. Please visit the Chase Retirement Plan Disclosures for Plan Sponsors website at: <https://www.chase.com/retirement-disclosures> on a regular basis in order to view any recent changes.

CONTACTS

Please contact your advisor or other J.P. Morgan Representative to request additional information.

Investment Advisory Accounts

Unless otherwise indicated, all investment advisory services are provided by, and all compensation described below is earned by, JPMS. When opening an investment advisory account, you will receive a client agreement and Form ADV Disclosure Brochure, which fully describe the nature of JPMS's services and the fees charged in the Programs for investment advisory services.

JPMS charges an annual asset-based investment advisory fee for the Programs; the maximum fee charged is 1.45%, except that the maximum fee charged by JPMS for assets invested in the FIAP is 0.70%.

Additional fees are charged by Model Managers and Portfolio Managers. Portfolio Manager Fees range from approximately 0.10% to 1% and Model Manager Fees range from 0.10% to 0.45%.

Current copies of the Program Brochure are available free of charge online at <https://www.chase.com/personal/investments/managed-account-disclosures> or from your advisor.

1. Fees do not apply to investment advisory accounts. Other exclusions may apply.
2. This fee does not apply to internal wire transfers.
3. This fee does not apply to Chase Private Clients.

OTHER IMPORTANT INFORMATION

DISCLOSURE OF ARRANGEMENTS WITH PAYERS OF INDIRECT COMPENSATION

Mutual Funds

Separate from the 12b-1 distribution fees and servicing and administrative fees described above and in the applicable fund prospectus, mutual fund and money market fund sponsors or distributors may make additional payments to JPMS or its affiliates in certain sales channels for providing additional marketing, sales and/or support services. These payments are typically called “revenue sharing” and are paid from the entity’s revenues or profits, not from the fund’s assets, but the entity’s revenues or profits may reflect fees paid to them by the fund. For mutual funds, JPMS may receive a payment as a percentage of the total purchase amount of one of these mutual funds, the amount you hold in your account (for any fund you hold in your account, and for as long as you hold that fund), and, for money market funds, JPMS may receive a payment as a percentage per year of the amount held in these money market funds. Some funds allocate more resources for these purposes, which could cause advisors to become more familiar with those funds and focus on them when meeting with clients. Funds or their affiliates may pay for sales meetings, seminars and conferences we hold in conducting our business, subject to conditions we impose. The extent to which a fund is willing to pay for these activities is solely determined by the fund’s advisers or affiliates, not by us. You can find additional information at jpmorgan.com/revenue-sharing.

The level of payments to us varies in any given year. For mutual funds, payments for sales of one fund’s shares may be more or less than the payments we receive from other funds’ advisers, distributors or other entities, and in certain instances, the payments could be significant. For both mutual funds and money market funds, while any such payments will not change the net asset value or price of a fund’s shares, the payments create a conflict of interest, as there maybe an incentive to promote and recommend those funds whose sponsors make significant payments. Similarly, we have a conflict in recommending funds that pay these fees instead of ETFs or other securities or products that do not pay any of these fees.

In Self-Directed Investing and Full Service brokerage accounts, JPMS may receive servicing and administrative fees of up to 0.25% per year of the average daily assets of fund shares carried in such accounts and/or a rate of up to $21 per year per mutual fund and/or money market fund position in such accounts, as applicable. For providing marketing, sales and/or support services to Full Service brokerage accounts attributable to revenue sharing, JPMS may receive payments of up to 0.09% per year of the average daily assets of mutual fund shares and up to 0.19% per year of the average daily assets of money market fund shares carried in such accounts and/or a rate of up to 0.25% per year of the total purchase amount of mutual funds and/or money market funds in such accounts, as applicable.

To establish such arrangements with a fund company, JPMS either has entered into an agreement directly with the fund company or has entered into an agreement with a service provider which, in turn, has entered into an agreement directly with the fund company. Please note that the actual amount received by JPMS may be subject to periodic waivers by fund families and such waivers may reduce the actual amount received by JPMS.

408(B)(2) FEE DISCLOSURE STATEMENT FOR RETIREMENT PLANS

Finally, in some cases, the expense ratio of a mutual fund will be voluntarily limited by the manager through a fee waiver. Fee waivers allow the fund to set a maximum level on the amount charged to shareholders. Accordingly, the 12b-1 distribution fees and other compensation described herein and in the “Mutual Fund Compensation Disclosures” tool located on the Chase Retirement Plan Disclosures for Plan Sponsors website found at <https://www.chase.com/retirement-disclosures> reflect amounts payable to JPMS prior to any waivers or expense caps imposed on the funds, which could, in practice, result in lower payments to JPMS as compared to the amounts disclosed herein.

Mutual Fund Compensation Disclosures for Retirement Plans

The Mutual Fund Compensation Disclosures (the “Tool”) allows you to view the compensation that JPMS earns for providing certain services when you purchase mutual funds. You may search by fund name, fund family name, or symbol and save and print a copy of your list by clicking on the “PDF” icon located on the top of the screen. While the Tool provides compensation information related to what JPMS earns when you purchase mutual funds in your retirement brokerage account, it does not provide information about other fund expenses and other relevant information you should consider when evaluating a fund. Furthermore, while the Tool provides information on a wide range of funds available to JPMS accounts, not all of these funds may be suitable for retirement plans. Be sure to carefully review the applicable mutual fund prospectus and other fund materials before investing.

Understanding Revenue Sharing – click here to read about revenue sharing on money market funds (including sweep funds or direct money market mutual funds purchases) and other mutual fund revenue sharing arrangements applicable to Full Service brokerage accounts that are not reflected in the mutual fund Tool described above.

FLOAT

JPMCB NA or its affiliates may retain, as compensation for the performance of services, your account’s proportionate share of any interest earned on aggregate cash balances held by J.P. Morgan with respect to “assets awaiting investment or other processing.” This amount, known as “float,” is earned by J.P. Morgan through investment in a number of short-term investment products and strategies, including, without limitation, loans to customers and investment securities, with the amount of such earnings retained by J.P. Morgan, due to the short-term nature of the investments, being generally at the prevailing Federal Funds interest rate (a publicly available average rate of all Federal Funds transactions entered into by traders in the Federal Funds market on a given date), less Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation insurance and other associated costs, if any. “Assets awaiting investment or other processing” for these purposes include, to the extent applicable, new deposits to the account, including interest and dividends, as well as any uninvested assets held in the account caused by an instruction to purchase and sell securities. J.P. Morgan will generally earn float until such time as such funds may be automatically swept into a sweep vehicle, or otherwise reinvested. “Assets awaiting investment or other processing” may also arise when JPMCB NA facilitates a distribution from the account. Thus, pursuant to JPMCB NA’s standard processes for check disbursement, cash is generally debited from the account on the date on the face of the check (also called the payable date). Such cash is deposited in a noninterest-bearing omnibus deposit account at JPMCB NA, where it remains until the earlier of the date the check is presented for payment or the date payment on the check is stopped at the client’s instruction (in which case the underlying funds are returned to the account). JPMCB NA derives earnings (float) from the use of funds that may be held in this manner, as described above.

NONMONETARY COMPENSATION & SUBSIDIES

Third-party providers (such as investment managers and recordkeepers), including companies that sponsor investment options made available to qualified retirement plans through JPMS, may participate in JPMS-sponsored internal training and education conferences and meetings, and may make payments to, or for the benefit of, JPMS or its advisors to reimburse for certain expenses incurred for these events. Providers may also sponsor their own educational conferences and pay certain expenses of advisors attending these events. JPMS’s policies require that the training or educational portion of these conferences comprises substantially all of the event and such conferences and meetings are subject to review and approval. Further, JPMS may provide sponsorship opportunities and access to our branch offices and advisors to such providers for educational, marketing and other promotional efforts. Any payments made by providers could lead advisors to focus on products managed by these providers when recommending products to clients instead of those from other providers that do not commit similar resources to educational, marketing and other promotional efforts.

Employees (including JPMS registered persons) may not attend due diligence meetings or any other product meetings that are sponsored by third-party investment product providers. However, employees engaged in JPMS's product selection are exempt from this prohibition and may attend such due diligence meetings to learn about new products offered by third-party investment product providers.

J.P. Morgan has implemented policies and procedures intended to ensure that J.P. Morgan and its employees avoid actual or perceived conflicts of interest when giving or receiving nonmonetary compensation from relevant parties, and comply with all applicable laws and regulations. To that end, the J.P. Morgan Code of Conduct and other gift-related policies generally restrict or prohibit acceptance of any gifts, entertainment or other nonmonetary compensation in connection with the services we provide to any particular client, including any particular plan, or in return for any business of the firm. Exceptions may be made, including for certain non-cash gifts or promotional items valued at $100 or less. J.P. Morgan's Code of Conduct and other gift-related policies set conditions for each of these types of payments, and do not permit any gifts or promotional items unless it is clear that the gift-giving person is not trying to influence or reward the JPMS employee inappropriately in connection with any business decision or transaction and the gift is unsolicited. Providers participating in JPMS programs or otherwise utilized by the firm are not required to make any of these types of payments.

JPMS believes that, under any reasonable method of allocation, the gifts and other nonmonetary compensation or subsidies that may be attributable to any particular plan are typically of insubstantial value (as any such gifts and other nonmonetary compensation or subsidies are most often attributable to JPMS's or J.P. Morgan's "book of business" as a whole) and, therefore, will generally be exempt from reporting on the Schedule C for the plan's Form 5500. Similarly, JPMS does not reasonably anticipate receiving any such gifts and other nonmonetary compensation or subsidies associated with the services it provides to any plan in excess of $250 and, accordingly, does not believe it has reportable nonmonetary compensation for purposes of ERISA section 408(b)(2).

EXTERNAL SOURCES

Certain compensation formulas and other information in this report and in the "Mutual Fund Compensation Disclosures" tool located on the Chase Retirement Plan Disclosures for Plan Sponsors website found at <https://www.chase.com/retirement-disclosures> were obtained from third-party sources that we believe, in good faith and with reasonable diligence, to be reputable and reliable. Accuracy, completeness and timeliness of data from such sources cannot be guaranteed.

NO TAX/LEGAL ADVICE

J.P. Morgan does not provide tax, legal or accounting advice. This material has been prepared for informational purposes only, and is not intended to provide, and should not be relied on for tax, legal or accounting advice. You are urged to consult your tax, legal and accounting advisers before opening an account and to understand the tax, ERISA and related consequences of any investments made under the plan.

PRODUCT EXPENSES

This Disclosure Statement solely covers compensation received by JPMS and its affiliates. Please remember that certain investment products (such as mutual funds and alternative investments) may have various internal fees, such as management fees, and other expenses, which are paid by managers or issuers of such products or by the vehicle itself, but which ultimately are borne by the plan as investor. The compensation described in this Disclosure Statement may, in some cases, also be reflected as a component of such internal fees and expenses. The prospectus, descriptive brochure, offering memorandum or similar documents for such products describe these internal fees and expenses in detail. Prospectuses for mutual funds or other registered funds managed by J.P. Morgan or its affiliates and other fund information may be obtained by calling your J.P. Morgan representative or J.P. Morgan Distribution Services, Inc. at (800) 480-4111. You may also view and order materials online at <https://www.jpmorganfunds.com>.

AFFILIATED PRODUCTS

Certain sponsors and managers of mutual funds and collective investment vehicles may be affiliated with JPMS. JPMS affiliates may receive investment management fees for managing an affiliated mutual fund, ETF or other vehicle and/or other forms of compensation in connection with the operation thereof—such as shareholder servicing, custody, fund accounting, administration, distribution, securities lending and other services—which may not be covered under the Regulation (and, therefore, are not described in this Disclosure Statement). The prospectus, descriptive brochure, offering memorandum or similar documents for such products describe these fees and other compensation in detail. The plan will receive no offset against fees by reason of such additional compensation, except as maybe required by applicable law.

RECORDKEEPING AND BROKERAGE SERVICES

For purposes of the Regulation, participant-directed brokerage accounts opened by JPMS are considered brokerage windows, self-directed brokerage accounts, or similar plan arrangements. JPMS does not offer a platform or similar mechanism through which a plan may specify—and no investments available within JPMS brokerage accounts shall be considered—“designated investment alternatives” into which participants and beneficiaries may direct the investment of assets held in, or contributed to, their individual accounts, even in such situations where the plan sponsor has attempted to restrict the investments into which such participants may allocate plan assets.

If your plan is an individual account plan (as defined in section 3(34) of ERISA) that permits participants to direct the investment of their accounts into one or more “designated investment alternatives” (e.g., recordkept through a third-party recordkeeper’s platform or similar mechanism), in addition to the information set forth in this Disclosure Statement regarding compensation received and services performed by JPMS, the regulation requires disclosure of certain information with respect to each such designated investment alternative. Please contact your plan’s recordkeeper to ensure you receive such information, which includes: (i) a description of any compensation that will be charged directly against an investment, such as commissions, sales loads, sales charges, deferred sales charges, redemption fees, surrender charges, exchange fees, account fees, and purchase fees, and that is not included in the annual operating expenses of the investment contract, product, or entity; (ii) the total annual operating expenses of the designated investment alternative; and (iii) certain other information or data about the designated investment alternative that is required for the covered plan administrator to comply with the disclosure obligations described in 29 CFR 2550.404a-5(d) (1) (commonly known as the “participant disclosure regulations”).

COMPENSATION FOR TERMINATION OF CONTRACT OR ARRANGEMENT

Unless otherwise specified herein, in the JPMS Fee Schedule or in your account agreement (or, as appropriate, the prospectus, descriptive brochure, offering memorandum or similar documents for the products in which the plan invests), you may generally terminate JPMS’s services at any time without penalty and no compensation is payable in connection with the termination of your plan’s arrangement with JPMS, except for any accrued but unpaid fees. Investment advisory and Model/Portfolio Manager fees are generally billed and payable in arrears, and adjusted pro-rata for periods less than the full billing cycle.

ORDER FLOW, ECNS, TRADING CENTERS

JPMS does not receive payment for order flow from market makers for client orders in equity securities. JPMS receives rebates from and pays fees to some registered securities exchanges for providing or taking liquidity on those exchanges, according to those exchanges’ published fee schedules approved by the SEC. Alternative trading systems also charge fees and, in some cases, pay rebates for the provision or removal of liquidity. In addition, JPMS receives marketing fees from options exchanges under marketing fee programs sponsored by some exchanges. Under some circumstances, the amount received by JPMS from a trading center over a period of time may exceed the amount that JPMS is charged by a trading center. These practices are one of many factors that may impact routing decisions and do not alter JPMS's policy to route client orders in securities to the trading centers where it believes clients will receive the best execution, taking into account, among other factors, price, transaction cost, volatility, reliability, market depth, and speed.

Affiliates of JPMS have ownership interests in some trading centers. Accordingly, JPMS stands to share in any profits that these trading centers earn from the execution of JPMS client orders on those trading centers. Additional information on the material aspects of JPMS's relationships with the primary trading centers to which JPMS routes, including descriptions of arrangements for payment for order flow and profit-sharing relationships, is available in JPMS's SEC Rule 606 reports at <https://www.jpmorgan.com/disclosures/sec-order-execution>.

An up-to-date list of all trading centers through which JPMS might trade and in which J.P. Morgan has an ownership interest can be found at <https://www.jpmorgansecurities.com/pages/am/securities/legal/ecn>. Such trading centers (and the extent of J.P. Morgan's ownership interest in any trading center) may change from time to time.

REQUESTS FOR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Please contact your advisor or call the appropriate number on the front of your statement to request any other information relating to the compensation JPMS received in connection with your plan's contract or arrangement that you may need in order to comply with the reporting and disclosure requirements of Title I of ERISA and the regulations, forms and schedules issued thereunder (including any information required for you to file Schedule C of Form 5500, where applicable). Wherever possible, such request should be furnished well in advance of the date upon which you must comply with the applicable reporting or disclosure requirement.

NO OFFER OR SOLICITATION

This material is not intended as an offer or solicitation for the purchase or sale of any financial instrument. In addition, this document is not itself an agreement for services, it is not intended to replace or amend any agreement or other contract that JPMS may have with or in respect of a plan, nor is it any guarantee with respect to the pricing of any of our services. In the event of any discrepancy between the information contained in these materials, on the one hand, and the terms which govern our contractual relationships with respect to direct relationships with a plan on the other, the latter will govern.

APPENDIX A – COMMISSIONS

The following standard commission schedules for Full Service brokerage accounts (not Self-Directed Investing accounts) detail how “full rate” commissions are calculated for Stocks, Exchange Traded Funds (ETFs), Option and Fixed Income agency transactions. Actual fees and charges may vary from one account to another based on a variety of factors and are at the discretion of JPMS. In addition, all such fees and charges, including the following commission rates, are subject to change periodically.

Please refer to your confirm or contact your advisor for the actual commission amount payable by the plan at any given point in time or with respect to a specific trade.

Stocks and Exchange Traded Funds	1% of Principal Minimum commission of $25

Stocks and Exchange Traded Funds via Chase.com	$0 per trade
---	---------------

Options	Premium Price	Fee per contract
	$0.01-$0.49	$1.00
$0.50-$0.99	$2.00
$1.00 and over	$4.00
Minimum commission of $25.00

Please also note that JPMS or an affiliate may act as principal on certain transactions. In such cases, JPMS or an affiliate receives compensation from clients by adding a mark-up to purchases, and deducting a mark-down from sales. This mark-up or mark-down will be reflected in the price when JPMS or an affiliate acts as principal.

Fixed Income	Asset Class	Maximum Mark-Up ($/Bond)
	High Grade	20
High Yield	25
Treasury Bills	1
