Use this form to

- Authorize a one-time qualified charitable distribution (as defined by the Internal Revenue Code) from your J.P. Morgan Securities LLC (JPMS) Traditional/SEP Individual Retirement Account (IRA), including Beneficiary IRA, in the form of a check, made payable to a charity.

What you need to know

- Before submitting this form, please ensure that:
 - There are sufficient funds in your account to cover the distribution amount and any fees. Your request will not be processed if there are insufficient funds to cover it.
 - Your legal address is on file because we will apply tax withholding requirements for the state of residence listed in our records.
- Qualified charitable distributions may be made on or after the date you reach age 70½. They are subject to an individual annual maximum distribution amount ($108,000 per year (as of 2025, indexed), but subject to downward adjustments for taxpayers who make a deductible IRA contribution). Your qualified charitable distribution may count toward your required minimum distribution (RMD) when you reach RMD age.
- Qualified charitable distributions cannot be made from "ongoing" SEP IRAs. For this purpose, the IRS has indicated that a SEP IRA is treated as "ongoing" if an employer contribution is made for the plan year ending with or within the IRA owner's taxable year in which the charitable contributions would be made.
- JPMS is not responsible for determining whether a distribution is a qualified charitable distribution. Consult your tax professional about the requirements and tax consequences.
- You should reach out to the receiving organization to confirm their Tax ID and address, and to notify the charity that a gift will be coming from your JPMS IRA (which should alert the charity of the need to provide you with a receipt for your Income Return/Form 1040 filing).
- This form must be notarized if you are submitting it by fax or mail. If you are submitting the form by secure message, notarization is not required.
- You must provide your Social Security number and federal tax withholding election so we can process your distribution. Forms without this information will not be processed.
- Refer to IRS Publications 590-B and 505 at irs.gov or consult your tax professional to learn more about IRA distributions, federal income tax withholding, and estimated tax requirements and penalties.
- For best results, complete this form using Adobe Reader. You will need to print a paper copy for your signature. If you are completing this form by hand, a space will be provided for you to write your name and account number on each page when you print the form.

4. Tax Withholding Elections

- U.S. Person (U.S. Citizen or Resident Alien) or Beneficiary that is a U.S. Estate, Trust or Charity
 - Distributions from an IRA are subject to federal and, in some cases, state income tax withholding.
 - If applicable, state income tax must be withheld according to the requirements for your state of residence. Any state income tax withheld from a qualified charitable distribution will reduce the amount received by the charity.
 - Several states require withholding from your distribution if you are subject to federal income tax withholding and may require that their specific state withholding form be completed.
 - Consult your tax professional for additional information regarding state income tax withholding.
- U.S. Person residing abroad
 - If you are a U.S. person residing abroad, you are not permitted to opt out of federal income tax withholding. We will withhold 10% unless a greater amount is elected.
 - Consult your tax professional for additional information regarding state income tax withholding.
- Withholding for Nonresident Alien or a Beneficiary that is a Foreign Estate, Trust or Charity
 - If you are a nonresident alien, this form must be accompanied by a properly completed IRS Form W-8BEN.
 - We will generally withhold tax at a rate of 30%.
 - If you are a foreign simple or grantor trust, you must provide Form W-8IMY along with any necessary supporting documentation required by the Form W-8IMY instructions.

The following General Instructions, Marginal Rate Tables and Specific Instructions are provided by the IRS to help you select the appropriate withholding rate for this distribution. You must complete the federal and state income tax election sections that follow these instructions. Note: References to specific pages and line numbers align with IRS Form W-4R found at irs.gov/FormW4R. Contact your tax professional for any questions.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code.

Future developments. For the latest information about any future developments related to Form W-4R, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4R.

Purpose of form. Complete Form W-4R to have payers withhold the correct amount of federal income tax from your nonperiodic payment or eligible rollover distribution from an employer retirement plan, annuity (including a commercial annuity), or individual retirement arrangement (IRA). See page 2 for the rules and options that are available for each type of payment. Don't use Form W-4R for periodic payments (payments made in installments at regular intervals over a period of more than 1 year) from these plans or arrangements. Instead, use Form W-4P, Withholding Certificate for Periodic Pension or Annuity Payments. For more information on withholding, see Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Caution: If you have too little tax withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty unless you make timely payments of estimated tax. If too much tax is withheld, you will generally be due a refund when you file your tax return. Your withholding choice (or an election not to have withholding on a nonperiodic payment) will generally apply to any future payment from the same plan or IRA. Submit a new Form W-4R if you want to change your election.

2025 Marginal Rate Tables

You may use these tables to help you select the appropriate withholding rate for this payment or distribution. Add your income from all sources and use the column that matches your filing status to find the corresponding rate of withholding. See page 2 for more information on how to use this table.

Nonperiodic payments—10% withholding. Your payer must withhold at a default 10% rate from the taxable amount of nonperiodic payments unless you enter a different rate on line 2. Distributions from an IRA that are payable on demand are treated as nonperiodic payments. Note that the default rate of withholding may not be appropriate for your tax situation. You may choose to have no federal income tax withheld by entering “-0-” on line 2. See the specific instructions below for more information. Generally, you are not permitted to elect to have federal income tax withheld at a rate of less than 10% (including “-0-”) on any payments to be delivered outside the United States and its territories.

Note: If you don’t give Form W-4R to your payer, you don’t provide an SSN, or the IRS notifies the payer that you gave an incorrect SSN, then the payer must withhold 10% of the payment for federal income tax and can’t honor requests to have a lower (or no) amount withheld. Generally, for payments that began before 2025, your current withholding election (or your default rate) remains in effect unless you submit a Form W-4R.

Eligible rollover distributions—20% withholding. Distributions you receive from qualified retirement plans (for example, 401(k) plans and section 457(b) plans maintained by a governmental employer) or tax-sheltered annuities that are eligible to be rolled over to an IRA or qualified plan are subject to a 20% default rate of withholding on the taxable amount of the distribution. You can’t choose withholding at a rate of less than 20% (including “-0-”). Note that the default rate of withholding may be too low for your tax situation. You may choose to enter a rate higher than 20% on line 2. Don’t give Form W-4R to your payer unless you want more than 20% withheld.

Note that the following payments are not eligible rollover distributions for purposes of these withholding rules:

- Qualifying “hardship” distributions;
- Distributions required by federal law, such as required minimum distributions;
- Distributions from a pension-linked emergency savings account;
- Eligible distributions to a domestic abuse victim;
- Qualified disaster recovery distributions;
- Qualified birth or adoption distributions; and
- Emergency personal expense distributions.

See Pub. 505 for details. See also Nonperiodic payments—10% withholding above.

Payments to nonresident aliens and foreign estates. Do not use Form W-4R. See Pub. 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities, and Pub. 519, U.S. Tax Guide for Aliens, for more information.

Tax relief for victims of terrorist attacks. If your disability payments for injuries incurred as a direct result of a terrorist attack are not taxable, enter “-0-” on line 2. See Pub. 3920, Tax Relief for Victims of Terrorist Attacks, for more details.

Specific InstructionsLine 1b

For an estate, enter the estate’s employer identification number (EIN) in the area reserved for “Social security number.”

Line 2

More withholding. If you want more than the default rate withheld from your payment, you may enter a higher rate on line 2.

Less withholding (nonperiodic payments only). If permitted, you may enter a lower rate on line 2 (including “-0-”) if you want less than the 10% default rate withheld from your payment. If you have already paid, or plan to pay, your tax on this payment through other withholding or estimated tax payments, you may want to enter “-0-”.

Suggestion for determining withholding. Consider using the Marginal Rate Tables on page 1 to help you select the appropriate withholding rate for this payment or distribution. The tables are most accurate if the appropriate amount of tax on all other sources of income, deductions, and credits has been paid through other withholding or estimated tax payments. If the appropriate amount of tax on those sources of income has not been paid through other withholding or estimated tax payments, you can pay that tax through withholding on this payment by entering a rate that is greater than the rate in the Marginal Rate Tables.

The marginal tax rate is the rate of tax on each additional dollar of income you receive above a particular amount of income. You can use the table for your filing status as a guide to find a rate of withholding for amounts above the total income level in the table.

To determine the appropriate rate of withholding from the table, do the following. Step 1: Find the rate that corresponds with your total income not including the payment. Step 2: Add your total income and the taxable amount of the payment and find the corresponding rate.

If these two rates are the same, enter that rate on line 2. (See Example 1 below.)

If the two rates differ, multiply (a) the amount in the lower rate bracket by the rate for that bracket, and (b) the amount in the higher rate bracket by the rate for that bracket. Add these two numbers; this is the expected tax for this payment. To get the rate to have withheld, divide this amount by the taxable amount of the payment. Round up to the next whole number and enter that rate on line 2. (See Example 2 below.)

If you prefer a simpler approach (but one that may lead to overwithholding), find the rate that corresponds to your total income including the payment and enter that rate on line 2.

Examples. Assume the following facts for Examples 1 and 2. Your filing status is single. You expect the taxable amount of your payment to be $20,000. Appropriate amounts have been withheld for all other sources of income and any deductions or credits.

Example 1. You expect your total income to be $65,000 without the payment. Step 1: Because your total income without the payment, $65,000, is greater than $63,475 but less than $118,350, the corresponding rate is 22%. Step 2: Because your total income with the payment, $85,000, is greater than $63,475 but less than $118,350, the corresponding rate is 22%. Because these two rates are the same, enter “22” on line 2.

Example 2. You expect your total income to be $61,000 without the payment. Step 1: Because your total income without the payment, $61,000, is greater than $26,925 but less than $63,475, the corresponding rate is 12%. Step 2: Because your total income with the payment, $81,000, is greater than $63,475 but less than $118,350, the corresponding rate is 22%. The two rates differ. $2,475 of the $20,000 payment is in the lower bracket ($63,475 less your total income of $61,000 without the payment), and $17,525 is in the higher bracket ($20,000 less the $2,475 that is in the lower bracket). Multiply $2,475 by 12% to get $297. Multiply $17,525 by 22% to get $3,856. The sum of these two amounts is $4,153. This is the estimated tax on your payment. This amount corresponds to 21% of the $20,000 payment ($4,153 divided by $20,000). Enter "21" on line 2.

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. You are required to provide this information only if you want to (a) request additional federal income tax withholding from your nonperiodic payment(s) or eligible rollover distribution(s); (b) choose not to have federal income tax withheld from your nonperiodic payment(s), when permitted; or (c) change a previous Form W-4R (or a previous Form W-4P that you completed with respect to your nonperiodic payments or eligible rollover distributions). To do any of the aforementioned, you are required by sections 3405(e) and 6109 and their regulations to provide the information requested on this form. Failure to provide this information may result in inaccurate withholding on your payment(s).

Failure to provide a properly completed form will result in your payment(s) being subject to the default rate; providing fraudulent information may subject you to penalties.

Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation, and to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and territories for use in administering their tax laws. The average time and expenses required to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. For estimated averages, see the instructions for your income tax return.

If you have suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. See the instructions for your income tax return.

You must make an election for both federal and state tax withholding.

Important: DO NOT LEAVE BLANK.

Enter 0 to waive federal tax or a whole percent from 1% to 100% as your federal withholding election. If you would like the default withholding rate, enter either 10% or 20%, as applicable.

If your requested gross distribution amount is not a whole number, the application of your chosen tax withholding rate may result in a fractional penny, which will be rounded up to the nearest whole penny. This may result in a higher effective tax withholding rate (%).

4A. FEDERAL WITHHOLDING ELECTION (DO NOT LEAVE BLANK)

A qualified charitable distribution is not subject to withholding; however, state tax rules vary, so consult a tax professional for guidance. There are penalties for not paying enough federal income taxes during the year, either through withholding on distributions or by making estimated tax payments.

You must choose one of the following options:

- Elect no federal income tax withholding from your distribution by entering "0" in the election box below, OR
- Elect federal income tax withholding by entering a whole percent from 1 to 100 in the election box below.

The following election box is mandated and provided by the IRS and requires your input. (References to page 2 and Marginal Rate Tables align with IRS Form W-4R, which can be found at irs.gov/FormW4R and is reproduced in Section 4 above.)

Your withholding rate is determined by the type of payment you will receive.

- For nonperiodic payments, the default withholding rate is 10%. You can choose to have a different rate by entering a rate between 0% and 100% on line 2. Generally, you can't choose less than 10% for payments to be delivered outside the United States and its territories.
- For an eligible rollover distribution, the default withholding rate is 20%. You can choose a rate greater than 20% by entering the rate on line 2. You may not choose a rate less than 20%.

See page 2 for more information.

2 Complete this line if you would like a rate of withholding that is different from the default withholding rate. See the instructions on page 2 and the Marginal Rate Tables below for additional information. Enter the rate as a whole number (no decimals)	2	_____ %
