Make your offer

Your real estate agent will help with this, too. Be prepared to negotiate the sales price and put down some good-faith money to show the seller that you're serious.

Get your mortgage

Start the mortgage process

Once we have your signed purchase contract and completed mortgage application, we'll start the underwriting process.

Get a home inspection, schedule a home appraisal and do a final walkthrough

A home inspection gives you the chance to see if any home repairs are needed and negotiate if you or the seller will need to handle them. We generally require a home appraisal for a professional estimate of your home's market value. You'll also need to schedule the final walkthrough with your agent.

Get ready for closing day!

Bring the necessary documents, as well as a cashier's check or proof of wire transfer to cover closing costs. With the Chase Closing Guarantee, we promise you'll close on time, or you'll get $5,000, if you qualify. Visit chase.com/cg to learn more.
Credit Card Point awards, grants, cash back, closing guarantees, and other awards ("awards") transferred to you under the terms of the program will be considered by Chase a discount of underwriting fees.

A conditional approval issued through the Chase Homebuyer Advantage Program is based on a comprehensive underwriting review of your credit, income, and assets, and is valid for a designated period of time to extend a home purchase loan up to a specified amount. The issuance of a conditional approval letter is not a loan commitment or a guarantee for loan approval, but is subject only to the following conditions: (i) the identification of a suitable property; (ii) no new information materially changes about your financial condition or creditworthiness prior to closing; and (iii) conditions typically connected to a home loan application that are not related to your financial condition or creditworthiness. Conditional approvals are for consumers searching for properties and are not available on all products. Contact a Home Lending Advisor for details.

The Chase Closing Guarantee offers assurance to customers purchasing a home with a Chase home loan that the loan will close on or before the Contract Closing Date, or the customer will receive monetary compensation in the form of a check, post-closing.

The Chase Closing Guarantee does not apply in any of the following circumstances: (1) Refinances; (2) Customer- or seller-initiated changes to the original closing date documented in the purchase agreement; (3) The following customer- or seller-initiated changes within 10 days of closing: loan amount, product type, contract terms, interest rate or initial rate locks; (4) Closing date extensions due to a delay in completion of new construction, improvements or repairs being made to the subject property; (5) Failure by the customer or seller to meet contract terms and requirements, including seller-related delays; (6) Transactions involving Consolidation, Extension and Modification Agreements (CEMAs) or loan amounts $2 million or greater; (7) Delays due to force majeure events, including weather or a natural disaster; (8) Delays caused by third parties other than Chase-required service providers; (9) Delays due to the customer's failure to respond to Chase requests within 2 business days; And (10) Delays due to non-arm's length transactions (a purchase transaction in which a direct personal, financial or business relationship exists among any of the parties to the transaction). Chase reserves the right to amend, terminate or withdraw the Chase Closing Guarantee at any time without prior notice.

Credit Card Point awards, grants, cash back, closing guarantees, and other awards ("awards") transferred to you under the terms of the program will be considered by Chase a discount of underwriting fees paid at mortgage closing. Any awards transferred at or outside closing in excess of the value of the underwriting fees may be considered miscellaneous income and may be reportable on Form 1099-MISC (Miscellaneous Information) or Form 1042-S (Foreign Person's U.S. Source Income Subject to Withholding) to you and the IRS for the year in which you participate and receive the awards. You are responsible for any tax liability related to participating in the program. Please consult your personal tax advisor for questions about the impact to your personal income tax returns.
