A GUIDE TO YOUR ACCOUNT†

It’s important that you understand how your Chase Total Checking account works. We’ve created this Guide to explain the fees and some key terms of your personal account.

Monthly Service Fee

How to Avoid the Monthly Service Fee During Each Monthly Statement Period

- $0 Monthly Service Fee when you have any ONE of the following:
  - Electronic deposits made into this account totaling $500 or more, such as payments from payroll providers or government benefit providers, by using (i) the ACH network, (ii) the Real Time Payment network, or (iii) third party services that facilitate payments to your debit card using the Visa® or Mastercard® network
  - OR, a balance at the beginning of each day of $1,500 or more in this account
  - OR, an average beginning day balance of $5,000 or more in any combination of this account and linked qualifying deposits/investments

ATM Fees

Non-Chase ATM (Avoid these fees by using a Chase ATM)

- $2.50 for any inquiries, transfers or withdrawals while using a non-Chase ATM in the U.S., Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands. Fees from the ATM owner/network still apply.

Overdraft Fees

Insufficient Funds: Chase pays an item if your account does not have enough money.

- $34 fee for each item (maximum of 3 Overdraft Fees per day, for a total of $102).
  - We will not charge an Insufficient Funds Fee if your account balance at the end of the business day is overdrawn by $5 or less.
  - We will not charge these fees for any item that is $5 or less, even if your account balance at the end of the business day is overdrawn.
  - We will not charge an Insufficient Funds Fee on a debit card transaction if your available balance was sufficient at the time it was authorized, even if your account balance is overdrawn at the time the transaction is presented for payment.
  - The same check or ACH item submitted multiple times by a merchant may result in only one Returned Item Fee for that item within a 30-day period.

Returned Item: Chase returns an item presented for payment when your account does not have enough money.

- Insufficient Funds Fees do not apply to withdrawals made at an ATM.

You can avoid overdrawing your account by making a deposit or transferring funds to cover the overdraft before the business day ends. If you deposit a check, this assumes we do not place a hold and the check is not returned. Here are the cutoff times for some ways of making a deposit or transferring funds from another Chase account:

- At a branch before it closes
- At an ATM before 11 p.m. Eastern Time (8 p.m. Pacific Time)
- When transferring money on chase.com or Chase Mobile® or using Zelle® before 11 p.m. Eastern Time (8 p.m. Pacific Time)

Additional cutoff times apply to other transfers, including transfers from non-Chase accounts. Please visit chase.com or Chase Mobile for more information and service agreements.

2. Qualifying personal investments include balances in investment and annuity products offered through JPMorgan Chase & Co. and its affiliates and agencies. For most products, we use daily balances to calculate the average beginning day balance for such investment and annuity products. Balances in 529 plans, donor-advised funds, and certain retirement plan investment accounts do not qualify. Investment products and related services are only available in English. JPMorgan Wealth Management is a business of JPMorgan Chase & Co., which offers investment products and services through J.P. Morgan Securities LLC (JPM), a registered broker-dealer and investment advisor, member FINRA and SIPC. Annuities are made available through Chase Insurance Agency, Inc. (CIA), a licensed insurance agency, doing business as Chase Insurance Agency Services, Inc. in Florida. Certain custody and other services provided by JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. (JPMCB). JPMCB, CIA and JPMGi are affiliated companies under the common control of JPMorgan Chase & Co. Products not available in all states.

Posting order is the order in which we apply deposits and withdrawals to your account. We provide you with visibility into how transactions are posted and in what order to help you better manage your account. When we transition from one business day to the next business day we post transactions to and from your account during our nightly processing. The order in which we generally post items during nightly processing for each business day is:

- First, we make any previous day adjustments, and add deposits to your account.
- Second, we subtract transactions in chronological order by using the date and time of when the transaction was authorized or shown as pending. This includes ATM and Chase banker withdrawals, transfers and payments; automatic payments; chase.com or Chase Mobile online transactions; checks drawn on your account; debit card transactions; wire transfers; and real time payments. If multiple transactions have the same date and time, then they are posted in high to low dollar order.
  - There are some instances where we do not have the time of the transaction therefore we post at the end of the day the transaction occurred:
    - We are unable to show the transaction as pending; or
    - We don't receive an authorization request from the merchant but the transaction is presented for payment.
- Third, there are some transactions that we cannot process automatically or until we've completed posting of your chronological transactions. This includes Overdraft Protection transfers or transfers to maintain target balances in other accounts. We subtract these remaining items in high to low dollar order.
- Finally, fees are assessed last.

If you review your account during the day, you will see that we show some transactions as “pending.” For details, refer to the section “Pending transactions” in the Deposit Account Agreement. These transactions impact your available balance, but have not yet posted to your account and do not guarantee that we will pay these transactions to your account if you have a negative balance at that time. We may still return a transaction unpaid if your balance has insufficient funds during that business day’s nightly processing, even if it had been displayed as a “pending” transaction on a positive balance during the day. If a transaction that you made or authorized does not display as “pending,” you are still responsible for it and it may still be posted against your account during nightly processing.

When Your Deposits Are Available

(See Funds Availability Policy in the Deposit Account Agreement for details)

  - The date your deposit is expected to be available will be displayed on your receipt
  - In some situations, we may notify you at the time or after your deposit is made that your funds (including the first $225) will not be available for up to seven business days

A “business day” is a non-holiday weekday. The cutoff times listed in the section above will determine the “business day” for your deposit.
