GETTING STARTED

STEP 01/04
Log In

Start out by logging in to Chase.com.

STEP 02/04
Enroll

On the My Accounts page, click Payments and Transfers.

Select Chase QuickPay from the dropdown menu. Then, click the “Enroll Now” button.

STEP 03/04
Register Your Email And Mobile Phone

So that payments sent to you are only delivered to you, Chase asks that you verify your email addresses and mobile phone number – but you’ll only have to do this once.

STEP 04/04
Verify Chase QuickPay Information

Next, you’ll receive a message with a verification code. Enter the code into the space provided, and click Continue to Chase QuickPay.
SENDING MONEY

STEP 01/04
Log On

To send a payment, log on to your Chase account either online, or using the Chase Mobile® app.

STEP 02/04
Select Chase QuickPay

Tap the Nav Menu at the top left of the main screen… Select “Chase QuickPay.”

From here, you have the option to Send Money, or even Request Money if you need to collect a payment from someone… To send, select “Send Money.”

STEP 03/04
Send a Payment

Follow the on-screen instructions to send a payment. You can either send money to an existing recipient, or add a new one.

If you’re using the Chase Mobile app, you can even select a recipient from your Contacts list.

STEP 04/04
Verify Information

Verify that all of your payment information is correct, then click “Submit.”
ACCEPTING MONEY

STEP 01/04
Email Or Text Message Notification

To accept money, you’ll first receive an email or text message saying that a payment is waiting to be accepted.

Note: If you’re not a Chase customer, click “Accept Money” within the message, and then follow the on-screen instructions to enroll.

STEP 02/04
Select Chase QuickPay

Once logged in to your account, tap the Nav Menu at the top left of the main screen... Select “Chase QuickPay”...

STEP 03/04
Accept Money

Select “To do list”... Then select “Accept Money.”

STEP 04/04
Confirmation Page

On the confirmation screen you’ll be told when to expect the money.

If the payment is between two Chase customers, funds are typically available the same day.
