CARDMEMBER AGREEMENT RATES AND FEES TABLE

INTEREST RATES AND INTEREST CHARGES
Purchase Annual Percentage Rate (APR)	19.49% to 27.99%. This APR will vary with the market based on the Prime Rate.[a]
My Chase Loan℠ APR	19.49% to 27.99%. This APR will vary with the market based on the Prime Rate.[a] Promotional offers with fixed APRs and varying durations may be available from time to time on some accounts.
Balance Transfer APR	19.49% to 27.99%. This APR will vary with the market based on the Prime Rate.[a]
Cash Advance APR	28.74%. This APR will vary with the market based on the Prime Rate.[b]
Penalty APR and When It Applies	Up to 29.99%. This APR will vary with the market based on the Prime Rate.[c] We may apply the Penalty APR to your account if you: • fail to make a Minimum Payment by the date and time that it is due; or • make a payment to us that is returned unpaid. How Long Will the Penalty APR Apply?: If we apply the Penalty APR for either of these reasons, the Penalty APR could potentially remain in effect indefinitely.
Paying Interest	Your due date will be a minimum of 21 days after the close of each billing cycle. We will not charge you interest on new purchases if you pay your entire balance or Interest Saving Balance by the due date each month. We will begin charging interest on balance transfers and cash advances on the transaction date.
Minimum Interest Charge	None
Credit Card Tips from the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau	To learn more about factors to consider when applying for or using a credit card, visit the website of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau at http://www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.

FEES
Annual Membership Fee	None to $250
Chase Pay Over Time℠ Fee (formerly My Chase Plan® Fee; a fixed finance charge)	Monthly fee of up to 1.72% of the amount of each eligible purchase transaction or amount you select to pay over time with no interest, just a fixed monthly fee. Promotional offers with lower monthly Chase Pay Over Time fees may be available from time to time on some accounts. The monthly Chase Pay Over Time fee will be determined each time a fee-based plan is created and will remain the same until the plan balance is paid in full.[d]
Transaction Fees
Balance Transfers	Either $5 or 5% of the amount of each transfer, whichever is greater.
Cash Advances	Either $10 or 5% of the amount of each transaction, whichever is greater.
Foreign Transactions	None
Penalty Fees
Late Payment	Up to $40.
Return Payment	Up to $40.
Return Check	None

Note: This account may not be eligible for balance transfers.

How We Will Calculate Your Balance: We use the daily balance method (including new transactions). See Interest Charges section in this Agreement for more details.

Billing Rights: Information on your rights to dispute transactions and how to exercise those rights are included in this Agreement. See Your Billing Rights section for full details.

Penalty Fees: A single violation of each type will not exceed $29. However, if another violation of the same type occurs within six monthly billing periods we will charge up to the maximum fee in the table above. The Late Payment and Return Payment fees will not exceed the related minimum payment that was due.

Minimum Payment: We will calculate the minimum payment as: (1) any past-due amounts; PLUS (2) any special payment obligations in connection with Flexible Financing Offers which require repayment of the balance over a pre-selected number of billing periods; PLUS (3) the larger of: (a) $40 (or total amount you owe if less than $40); or (b) the sum of: (i) 1% of the new balance (excluding any Flexible Financing Offer balances which require special payment obligations to ensure repayment of the balance over a pre-selected number of billing periods), PLUS (ii) any periodic interest charges and late fees we have billed you on the statement for which your minimum payment is calculated.

Prime Rate: Variable APRs are based on the 7.00% Prime Rate as of September 30, 2026.

[a] We add 12.49% to 20.99% to the Prime Rate to determine the Purchase/My Chase Loan/Balance Transfer APR (daily periodic rate currently 0.05340% to 0.07669%). Maximum APR 29.99% (daily periodic rate 0.08217%).

[b] We add 21.74% to the Prime Rate to determine the Cash Advance APR (daily periodic rate currently 0.07874%). Maximum APR 29.99% (daily periodic rate 0.08217%).

[c] We add up to 26.99% to the Prime Rate to determine the Penalty APR. Maximum APR 29.99% (daily periodic rate 0.08217%).

[d] Chase Pay Over Time Fee. The Chase Pay Over Time Fee (formerly called the My Chase Plan Fee) is calculated at the time each plan is created, and is based on the amount of each purchase transaction or account balance selected to create the plan, the number of billing periods over which you choose to pay the balance in full, and other factors. The monthly and aggregate dollar amount of your Chase Pay Over Time Fee will be disclosed during the activation of each plan. Chase Pay Over Time plan balances that have a Chase Pay Over Time Fee will not be subject to interest after plan activation.

MILITARY LENDING ACT NOTICE: Federal law provides important protections to members of the Armed Forces and their dependents relating to extensions of consumer credit. In general, the cost of consumer credit to a member of the Armed Forces and his or her dependent may not exceed an annual percentage rate of 36 percent. This rate must include, as applicable to the credit transaction or account: the costs associated with credit insurance premiums; fees for ancillary products sold in connection with the credit transaction; any application fee charged (other than certain application fees for specified credit transactions or accounts); and any participation fee charged (other than certain participation fees for a credit card account). To receive this information and a description of your payment obligation verbally, please call 1-800-235-9978.

WELCOME TO CHASE

YOUR CARDMEMBER AGREEMENT

CHASE

WELCOME TO YOUR ACCOUNT.

Take a moment to read and save this important information about your account. This document, along with the Rates and Fees Table, is an agreement between you (the cardmember) and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., a subsidiary of JPMorgan Chase & Co. If you have any questions, please call us using the number on the back of your card. We've agreed to lend you money as described in this agreement, and you agree to pay us back, along with interest charges and fees. If you use this account or make any payment to it, you're indicating that you accept the terms of this agreement. Keep in mind: If any fee in the Rates and Fees Table is marked "none," the section of this agreement that relates to that fee won't apply.

GETTING STARTED: YOUR ACCOUNT

IMPORTANT TERM	WHAT IT MEANS TO YOU	OUR RESPONSIBILITY
Credit Access Line	You are responsible for balances on your account including amounts charged in excess of your credit access line. We may also refer to credit access line as credit line or credit limit.	We will assign a credit access line to your account, and post it on your monthly billing statement. We may cancel, change or restrict your credit availability at any time. Each transaction is considered for approval on an individual basis, including those above the credit access line. We may not approve all transactions.
Authorized Users	You are responsible for any use of your account by an authorized user or anyone else (including artificial intelligence ("AI") platforms or AI agents) that you or an authorized user permit to use your account or account credentials.	If you request, we may issue cards that access your account to individual authorized users. If you wish to terminate any authorized user, you must notify us and we may, in our sole discretion, close your account and open a new account with a different account number.
Annual Membership Fee	If your account has an annual fee, you are responsible for it every year your account is open or until your account is closed and paid in full. Your monthly billing statement will tell you how to cancel your account and avoid future annual fees.	If your account has an annual fee, we will add your annual fee to your monthly billing statement once a year, whether or not you use your account. Your annual fee will be added to your purchase balance and may incur interest.
Amendments	We may change the terms of this agreement including APRs and fees from time to time. We may also add new terms or delete terms. APRs or other terms may also change without amendment, for example when the Prime Rate changes or the penalty APR becomes applicable. See the Variable Rate and Penalty APR sections for details.	Our ability to make changes to this agreement is limited by applicable law. We may communicate amendments to this agreement to you via mail, email or other electronic means, or included in your monthly billing statements as permitted by law.

IMPORTANT DEFINITIONS

TERM	WHAT IT MEANS
Cash-like Transactions	Cash-like transactions will be treated as cash advances. Cash-like transactions include, but are not limited to, the following transactions to the extent they are accepted: • purchasing travelers checks, foreign currency, money orders, wire transfers, cryptocurrency, other similar digital or virtual currency and other similar transactions; • purchasing predictive contracts, lottery tickets, casino gaming chips, race track wagers, and similar offline and online betting transactions; • person-to-person money transfers and account-funding transactions that transfer currency; and • making a payment using a third party service including bill payment transactions not made directly with the merchant or their service provider.
Payment Due Date	Payments are due on the payment due date shown on your monthly statement. The monthly statement also explains when the payment must reach us in order to be considered received as of that date. Payments received after the required time will be credited on the next business day.
Variable Rate	We calculate variable APRs by adding a margin to the highest U.S. Prime Rate published in the Money Rates section of The Wall Street Journal two business days (not weekends or federal holidays) before the closing date shown on your billing statement. The APR may increase or decrease each month if the Prime Rate changes. Any new rate will be applied as of the first day of your billing cycle during which the Prime Rate has changed. If the APR increases, you will pay a higher interest charge and may pay a higher minimum payment. The Prime Rate is simply a reference index and is not the lowest interest rate available. If The Wall Street Journal stops publishing the Prime Rate, we will select a similar reference rate.
Default	Your account will be in default if: 1) You do not pay at least the minimum payment when due; 2) You fail to comply with this or other agreements with us or one of our related banks; or 3) We believe you may be unwilling or unable to pay your debts on time; you file for bankruptcy; or you become incapacitated or die. If your account is in default, we may close it without notice and require you to pay your unpaid balance immediately. We can also begin collection activities. To the extent permitted by law, if you are in default because you have failed to pay us, we will require you to pay our collection costs, attorneys' fees, court costs, and all other expenses of enforcing our rights under this agreement.
Interest Saving Balance	When you take advantage of Flexible Financing Offers, we will not charge you interest on new purchases if you pay your entire Interest Saving Balance by the due date each month. If your Interest Saving Balance for any billing cycle is less than your minimum payment due, your Interest Saving Balance amount will reflect your minimum payment due to avoid a late fee.
Flexible Financing Offers	When you take advantage of Flexible Financing Offers, like those available with My Chase Loan and Chase Pay Over Time, you can pay those balances over time based on their offer terms and still avoid additional interest charges on new purchases.

USING YOUR CARD

You can use your account in the following ways. Your account is to be used only for personal, family or household purposes. You cannot use your account for illegal purposes, such as writing checks against uncollected funds. You agree that we may rely on information provided to us by merchants and the applicable payment network to categorize transactions as Purchases, Balance Transfers or Cash Advances. Unless prohibited by law, we may use artificial intelligence systems to monitor, maintain or service your account.

TRANSACTIONS	WHAT IT MEANS TO YOU	OUR RESPONSIBILITY
Purchases	You may use your account to buy goods and services.	We authorize charges to your account in accordance with the terms of this agreement.
Balance Transfers	If eligible for a balance transfer, you can transfer balances to your account by using balance transfer checks, visiting our website or calling us.	We permit balance transfers from most non-Chase accounts. We do not permit balance transfers from other accounts or loans with us or any of our related banks.
Cash Advances	You may obtain cash from automatic teller machines, at banks or by using cash advance checks. Unless we say otherwise, balance transfer checks or promotional checks made payable to cash or yourself will be treated as cash advances.	We treat certain other transactions as cash advances. See the Cash-like Transactions section under Important Definitions above.
Checks	For your protection, balance transfer and cash advance checks must be signed by the person whose name is printed on the checks.	We may provide balance transfer checks and cash advance checks for your use; we have the right not to pay a check for any reason.
Automatic Charges	You may set up scheduled and repeat transactions to your account. If your account is closed or suspended, or your account number changes, you will need to contact any persons that you are paying by automatic transactions.	We are not responsible for scheduled and repeat transactions if your account is closed, suspended or the account number changes.
Promotions	You may receive special offers related to your account.	Any special offer is subject to this agreement, unless explained otherwise.

Foreign Transaction Fee and Exchange Rate	There is a fee, unless "None" is stated in the Rates and Fees Table, for transactions that are made in a currency other than U.S. Dollars. Our fee is a percentage of the U.S. Dollar amount of the transaction. Please see the Rates and Fees Table for the amount of this fee, if any.	• If a transaction is in a foreign currency, Visa International or Mastercard International will convert the transaction into U.S. dollars using their own currency conversion procedures, and then will send us the transaction amount. The exchange rate will be determined using either the range of rates available in the wholesale currency markets for the processing date (which may be different from the rate the card association receives) or a government-mandated rate in effect on that date. The exchange rate used by Visa or Mastercard may differ from the rate on the date of your transaction. • In the case of returned or exchanged merchandise that was purchased in a foreign currency, the exchange rate is determined on the date of the return.
Authorization of Transactions / Closing Your Account	We are not obligated to honor every transaction, and we may close or suspend your account. Sometimes we close accounts based not on your actions or inactions, but on our business needs.	We may decline transactions for any reason, including: operational matters, the account is in default, or suspected fraudulent or unlawful activity. We are not responsible for any losses associated with a declined transaction.
My Chase Loan℠	If eligible, you may use the My Chase Loan feature to obtain cash as an electronic deposit into an eligible bank account held by a financial institution located in the United States by accepting a My Chase Loan offer. Each offer will include a My Chase Loan APR and the number of billing periods it will take to pay the My Chase Loan balance in full by making regular payments each monthly billing period. Your ability to create a My Chase Loan balance is based on a variety of factors, such as your creditworthiness, your credit limit, and your past account behavior. You will not be able to create a My Chase Loan balance if you enroll in a debt management program or if your account is closed or in default. My Chase Loan transactions are not Cash Advances or Balance Transfers. My Chase Loan provides Flexible Financing Offers. Therefore, when you have a My Chase Loan balance on your account, we will not charge you interest on new purchases if you pay your entire Interest Saving Balance by the due date each month.	At our discretion, we may make My Chase Loan available to you; we may decline a My Chase Loan transaction for any reason.

Chase Pay Over Time℠	With Chase Pay Over Time you can create a plan to pay for eligible purchases or account balances in equal monthly payments over a set period of time. Chase Pay Over Time works in two ways: • at checkout with select merchants, or • by using Chase.com or the Chase Mobile App, after checkout (the feature formerly known as My Chase Plan). Chase Pay Over Time plan balances are subject to either interest not to exceed the Purchase APR (and may be a promotional or fixed rate), or a fixed monthly Chase Pay Over Time Fee, but not both. Whether a plan is subject to interest or the Chase Pay Over Time Fee is at our discretion and will be disclosed to you at the time of plan creation. An eligible purchase is a purchase of at least a specific dollar amount, as provided within the Chase Pay Over Time offer details or plan creation experience. Certain transactions like cash-like transactions and purchases already subject to promotional or introductory terms are not eligible. Cash advance, balance transfer and My Chase Loan transactions, as well as Fees owed to us (like the Annual Membership Fee), are not eligible for Chase Pay Over Time.	At our discretion, we may make Chase Pay Over Time available to you. Eligibility for Chase Pay Over Time depends on the amount of your available credit, creditworthiness, account behavior, and other factors. You will not be able to use Chase Pay Over Time if you enroll in a debt management program or if your account is closed or in default. We may limit the number of plans you can have and can change this number at any time. We may decline a specific Chase Pay Over Time plan for any reason and we may, from time to time, further limit the types of transactions eligible for Chase Pay Over Time.

PAYING US BACK

You will receive a billing statement, if one is required, each month. It will show your minimum required payment.
After you make a payment, it may take up to 15 days to restore available credit on your account.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION	WHAT IT MEANS TO YOU	OUR RESPONSIBILITY
Payment Instructions	You must follow the payment instructions on your billing statement. You can pay us by: check, money order, or electronic payment drawn on a U.S. bank or a foreign bank branch in the U.S. All payments must be in U.S. Dollars. You authorize us to collect any payment check either electronically or by draft. Payments marked "paid in full" must be sent to the Conditional Payments address shown on your billing statement. If your account has a Credit Balance, or if we otherwise owe you a refund, you authorize us to initiate ACH credit entries for the purpose of returning Credit Balances or other refund amounts to the bank account you authorized for electronic payments to your account. See your billing statement for complete payment instructions.	As long as you make your payment in accordance with the instructions on your billing statement by the date and time payments are due, we will credit your payment as of the same day it is received. We may accept and process any payments marked as "paid in full" without losing our rights.
Minimum Payment	You agree to pay at least the minimum payment when due. You also agree to pay amounts in excess of your credit access line when billed to your monthly statements or sooner if we ask. Minimum payments may include specific fixed payments that are part of special promotions. You can pay down balances faster by paying more than the minimum payment or the total unpaid balance on your account.	We will calculate your minimum payment based on the method described below the Rates and Fees Table. The minimum payment will appear on your monthly statement and includes any past due amounts.
Interest-Free Period (also called Grace Period) on Purchases	• When your account is in an interest-free period, interest is not charged on new purchases. • Your account is in an interest-free period when you have paid the New Balance or Interest Saving Balance shown on your most recent billing statement by the due date and time. • If you do not pay the New Balance or Interest Saving Balance shown on your most recent billing statement by the due date and time, you will lose your interest-free period and we will charge interest on your purchases.	• When your account is in an interest-free period, we will not charge you interest on new purchases. • When your account is not in an interest-free period, we will charge you interest on your purchases from the date the purchases appear on your account until your New Balance or Interest Saving Balance is paid in full. • For more details about how we calculate your interest charges, see the Interest Charges section of this agreement.

	• You can regain the benefit of the interest-free period by paying your New Balance or Interest Saving Balance by the due date and time. • After you enter an interest-free period again, interest charges on purchases may still appear on your next billing statement. This reflects interest charged from the beginning of that billing cycle through the date that your payment for the prior billing statement was received. • Balance Transfers, Checks and Cash Advances do not have an interest-free period and if these balances are not paid in full by paying your New Balance or Interest Saving Balance by the due date and time, you will lose your interest-free period on new purchases.
Payment Allocation	• When you make a payment, generally, we apply your minimum payment first to (a) the monthly obligation for any Flexible Financing Offer balances with special payment obligations which require repayment of the balance over a pre-selected number of billing periods (like Chase Pay Over Time plans), and then to (b) the balance on your monthly statement with the lowest APR. • Any payment above your minimum payment would generally then be applied to the balance on your monthly statement with the highest APR first.	We apply payments to balances on your monthly statement before being applied to new transactions posted to your account after the statement date. Examples of new transactions are recent purchases you made and Chase Pay Over Time plans you created that are not yet included on your statement.
Credit Balances	You may request a refund of any credit balance.	If you do not request a refund, we will apply any credit balance to new charges on your Account. If a credit balance remains on your account for 6 months and the amount is $1 or more, we will automatically refund it to you. If your credit balance is less than $1, it will be removed from your account but we will send the credit balance to you if you ask us to do so.

"HOW TO AVOID..."

Certain transactions and situations may cause your account to receive a fee or have another impact on your account. The information below explains how you can avoid these outcomes. Amounts of these fees are listed in the Rates and Fees Table. The Rates and Fees Table indicates amounts "up to" certain limits for penalty fees because applicable law may restrict our ability to impose the full amount of the penalty fee in some circumstances. See the "Penalty Fees" provision below the Rates and Fees Table for additional detail reflecting limitations imposed under applicable law. Special services you request may incur additional service fees; be sure to carefully review the details of any additional services to understand the terms.

"HOW TO AVOID..."	WHAT TO DO	WHAT IT MEANS
Late Fee	Ensure Chase receives at least the minimum payment shown on your billing statement when due.	If any payment is late, we may charge you a late fee. If the fee is based on a balance, we calculate the fee using the total balance at the end of the day the fee is charged.
Return Check Fee	Do not stop payment on cash advance and balance transfer checks, and do not default.	We may charge a return check fee if we stop payment on a cash advance check or balance transfer check at your request, or we refuse to pay a cash advance check or balance transfer check for any reason, including because your account is in default.
Return Payment Fee	Do not submit a payment that could be returned unpaid.	We may charge this fee if the payment you offer to us is not honored, is returned unpaid, or cannot be processed.
Penalty APR	Do Not : • Fail to make a Minimum Payment by the date and time that it is due; or • Make a payment to us that is returned unpaid.	We can apply the Penalty APR, which is higher than the APR you would otherwise pay, for either of these reasons. • Penalty APR on New Transactions: If you fail to make a Minimum Payment by the date and time that it is due, but you make the payment within 60 days of that due date, we may apply the Penalty APR. We also may apply the Penalty APR if you make a payment to us that is returned unpaid. In either instance, the Penalty APR will apply to new transactions. After we apply the Penalty APR, we will review your account from time to time to see if a reduction in the APR is appropriate. • Penalty APR on outstanding balances and new transactions: If we do not receive the Minimum Payment within 60 days of the date and time that it is due, then we also may apply the Penalty APR. If we apply it in this instance, the Penalty APR will apply to all existing balances on your account and new transactions. If you make six consecutive minimum payments when due beginning with your first payment due after we apply the Penalty APR, then the Penalty APR will no longer apply. If you do not make six consecutive minimum payments when due beginning with your first payment due after we apply the Penalty APR, then the Penalty APR could remain in effect indefinitely. After we apply the Penalty APR, we will review your account from time to time to see if a reduction in the APR is appropriate.

"WHAT HAPPENS IF...?"

Review this section for common situations or questions that might require action from you or Chase.

"WHAT HAPPENS IF...?"	ACTION	WHAT IT MEANS
… I think I found a mistake on my statement?	We will investigate	Write to us within 60 days after the suspected error appears on your billing statement. We will investigate and contact you with our findings. Please see the Your Billing Rights section below for more details.
… I'm dissatisfied with a credit card purchase?	We will research the problem	First, attempt to resolve the problem with the merchant. Then write to us about the purchase. We will research the problem and contact you with our findings. Please see the Your Billing Rights section below for more details.
… my card is lost or stolen?	Contact us immediately and stop using your account	If your card is lost or stolen, or you think someone used your account without permission, tell us immediately by calling the Cardmember Services number on your card or billing statement. We need your help to find out what happened and correct the problem.
... my account is closed or suspended?	You remain responsible for your balance	Even if your account is closed or suspended, you must still repay all amounts you owe under the account.
...I want to transfer a balance or make a cash advance?	Balance transfer or cash advance transaction fees apply	You will incur a transaction fee for these transactions. See the Rates and Fees Table for the amount of this fee.

ABOUT OUR RELATIONSHIP

Maintaining a positive relationship with you is very important to us. Please review these terms to understand more about your account.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION	WHAT IT MEANS
Communications	· Communications about this account—such as billing statements, agreements, amendments, notices, alerts, collection attempts, and disclosures —are considered delivered once they are posted on our website or mobile applications, or sent to any email address we have on file for you, unless the law requires a different delivery method. · Unless required by law, we are not obligated to send paper communications; however, you may print electronic communications yourself or request a mailed paper copy by calling the number on the back of your card, and a fee may apply. We may restrict or close your account if electronic communications are undeliverable, you opt out of receiving electronic billing statements, or you withdraw your consent for electronic communications altogether. · When you give us your mobile phone number, we have your permission to contact you at that number about all your Chase or J.P. Morgan accounts. Your consent allows us to use text messaging, artificial or prerecorded voice messages and automatic dialing technology for informational and account service calls, but not for telemarketing or sales calls. This may include contact from companies working on our behalf to service your accounts. Message and data rates may apply. You may contact us anytime to change these preferences. · You must promptly notify us of any changes to your name, mailing or email address, or phone number(s). You may notify us of changes by updating your contact details within your digital profile or calling the number on the back of your card. Without current contact information you may miss important updates from us and your ability to use the account may be impacted. If you change your address to an address located outside the United States, or we determine that you are residing outside the United States, we may close your account.
Telephone Monitoring	We may listen to and record your telephone calls with us and we may use your voice for verification.
Credit Information	We may obtain and review your credit history from credit reporting agencies and others. We may, from time to time, obtain employment and income data from third parties to assist us in the ongoing administration of your account. We may also provide information about you and your account to credit reporting agencies and others. We may provide information to credit reporting agencies about this account in the name of an authorized user. If you think we provided incorrect information, write to us and we will investigate.
Enforcement	We may enforce the terms of this agreement at any time. We may delay enforcement without losing our right to enforce this agreement at a later time. If any terms of this agreement are found to be unenforceable, we may still enforce the other terms.
Governing Law	This agreement and your account will be governed by federal law, as well as the law of Delaware, and will apply no matter where you live or use this account.

Assignment	We may assign your account, balances you owe, or any of our rights and obligations under this agreement. The third party is then entitled to any of our rights that we assign to them.
NJ Residents	All provisions of this agreement are valid, enforceable and applicable in New Jersey.
Military Lending Act Notice	Federal law provides important protections to members of the Armed Forces and their dependents relating to extensions of consumer credit. In general, the cost of consumer credit to a member of the Armed Forces and his or her dependent may not exceed an annual percentage rate of 36 percent. This rate must include, as applicable to the credit transaction or account: the costs associated with credit insurance premiums; fees for ancillary products sold in connection with the credit transaction; any application fee charged (other than certain application fees for specified credit transactions or accounts); and any participation fee charged (other than certain participation fees for a credit card account). If you are covered by the Military Lending Act, (i) then you are not bound by the Arbitration Agreement below, and (ii) notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, to the extent required by the Military Lending Act, nothing in this agreement will be deemed a waiver of the right to legal recourse under any otherwise applicable provision of state or federal law. To receive this information and a description of your payment obligation verbally or for questions, please call 1-800-235-9978.
Binding Arbitration	Unless you timely reject the agreement to arbitrate, disputes with us may be resolved by binding arbitration. With arbitration, you cannot go to court, have a jury trial or initiate or participate in a class action for your dispute(s) with us. In arbitration, disputes are resolved by an arbitrator, not a judge or jury, and procedures are simpler and more limited than rules applicable in court. Please see the Arbitration Agreement section for more details, including instructions for how to reject the agreement to arbitrate.

INTEREST CHARGES

Periodic Interest Charge Calculation—Daily balance method (Including new transactions):

We calculate a daily balance for each type of transaction and use the daily balances to determine your interest charges.

We figure the "daily balance" for each transaction type as follows:

- We take the beginning balance for each day and add
  - any interest charge from the prior day (known as compounding of interest) and
  - any new transactions or other debits (including Annual Membership Fees, transaction fees, Penalty Fees, any other fees and unpaid interest charges).
- We subtract payments or credits, and treat any net credit balance as a zero balance.
- The result is the daily balance for each type of transaction.

- To get the daily interest rate for each type of transaction we divide the APR by 365. We may combine different transaction types that have the same daily interest rates.
- We multiply the daily interest rate by the daily balance for each transaction type for each day in the billing cycle.
- We add together the interest charges for each day in the billing cycle for each transaction type.
- If any interest charge is due, we will charge you at least the minimum interest charge shown on the Rates and Fees Table.

We add transactions and fees to your daily balance no earlier than:

- For new purchases (including Chase Pay Over Time plans created at checkout with select merchants), balance transfers, cash advances, or My Chase Loans – the date of the transaction.
- For new cash advance checks or balance transfer checks – the date the payee deposits the check.
- Fees – either on the date of a related transaction, the date they are posted to your account, or the last day of the billing cycle, whichever we may choose.

The Balances Subject to Interest Rate for each type of transaction shown on your billing statement is the sum of the daily balances for that type of transaction divided by the number of days in the billing cycle. We may use mathematical formulas that produce equivalent results to calculate the Balance Subject to Interest Rate, interest charges and related amounts.

YOUR BILLING RIGHTS: KEEP THIS DOCUMENT FOR FUTURE USE

This notice tells you about your rights and our responsibilities under the Fair Credit Billing Act.

What To Do If You Find A Mistake On Your Statement

If you think there is an error on your statement, contact us in writing at the Customer Service address shown on your billing statement. In your communication, give us the following information:

- Account information: Your name and account number.
- Dollar amount: The dollar amount of the suspected error.
- Description of problem: If you think there is an error on your bill, describe what you believe is wrong and why you believe it is a mistake.

You must contact us:

- Within 60 days after the error appeared on your statement.
- At least 3 business days before an automated payment is scheduled, if you want to stop payment on the amount you think is wrong.

You must notify us of any potential errors in writing. You may call us or notify us electronically, but if you do we are not required to investigate any potential errors and you may have to pay the amount in question.

What Will Happen After We Receive Your Written Communication

When we receive your communication, we must do two things:

1. Within 30 days of receiving your communication, we must tell you that we received it. We will also tell you if we have already corrected the error.
2. Within 90 days of receiving your communication, we must either correct the error or explain to you why we believe the bill is correct.

While we investigate whether or not there has been an error:

- We cannot try to collect the amount in question, or report you as delinquent on that amount.
- The charge in question may remain on your statement, and we may continue to charge you interest on that amount.
- While you do not have to pay the amount in question, you are responsible for the remainder of your balance.
- We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit access line.

After we finish our investigation, one of two things will happen:

- If we made a mistake: You will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or other fees related to that amount.
- If we do not believe there was a mistake: You will have to pay the amount in question, along with applicable interest and fees. We will send you a statement of the amount you owe and the date payment is due. We may then report you as delinquent if you do not pay the amount we think you owe.

If you receive our explanation but still believe your bill is wrong, you must contact us in writing within 10 days telling us that you still refuse to pay. If you do so, we cannot report you as delinquent without also reporting that you are questioning your bill. We must tell you the name of anyone to whom we reported you as delinquent, and we must let those organizations know when the matter has been settled between us.
If we do not follow all of the rules above, you do not have to pay the first $50 of the amount you question even if your bill is correct.

Your Rights If You Are Dissatisfied With Your Credit Card Purchases

If you are dissatisfied with the goods or services that you have purchased with your credit card, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the purchase. To use this right, all of the following must be true:

1. The purchase must have been made in your home state or within 100 miles of your current mailing address, and the purchase price must have been more than $50. (Note: Neither of these are necessary if your purchase was based on an advertisement we mailed to you, or if we own the company that sold you the goods or services.)
2. You must have used your credit card for the purchase. Purchases made with cash advances from an ATM or with a check that accesses your credit card account do not qualify.
3. You must not yet have fully paid for the purchase.

If all of the criteria above are met and you are still dissatisfied with the purchase, contact us in writing at the Customer Service address shown on your billing statement. While we investigate, the same rules apply to the disputed amount as discussed above. After we finish our investigation, we will tell you our decision. At that point, if we think you owe an amount and you do not pay, we may report you as delinquent.

ARBITRATION AGREEMENT
PLEASE REVIEW — IMPORTANT — AFFECTS YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS

This arbitration agreement provides that all disputes between you and Chase must be resolved by BINDING ARBITRATION whenever you or we choose to submit or refer a dispute to arbitration, except for a Claim that is filed in a small claims court. If a Claim moves out of or is transferred from a small claims court, however, this arbitration agreement then applies to that Claim. By accepting this arbitration agreement you GIVE UP YOUR RIGHT TO GO TO COURT (except for matters that are filed in a small claims court). Arbitration will proceed on an INDIVIDUAL BASIS, so class actions and similar proceedings will NOT be available to you.

YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO REJECT THIS AGREEMENT TO ARBITRATION, BUT IF YOU WISH TO REJECT IT, YOU MUST DO SO PROMPTLY. If you do not reject this agreement to arbitration within 60 days of account opening and in the manner set forth below, then:

- In arbitration, your rights will be determined by a NEUTRAL ARBITRATOR and NOT A JUDGE OR JURY.
- You waive any ability to assert or participate in a class, representative, or consolidated proceeding, whether in Court of in arbitration.
- The procedures in arbitration are simpler and more limited than rules applicable in court.
- Arbitrator decisions are subject to VERY LIMITED REVIEW BY A COURT.

If you do not reject this agreement as provided below within 60 days of account opening, you or we may elect to resolve any Claim by arbitration.

For purposes of this agreement to arbitrate, "you" includes any co-applicant or authorized user on your account, or anyone else connected with you or claiming through you; and "we" or "us" includes JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. and Chase Bank USA, N.A., all of their parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, successors, predecessors, employees, and related persons or entities and all third parties who are regarded as agents or representatives of us in connection with the account, or the subject matter of the claim or dispute at issue. If we assign your account to an unaffiliated third party, then "we" includes that third party. If a third party is also involved in a Claim between you and us, then the Claim will be decided with respect to the third party in arbitration as well, and it must be named as a party in accordance with the rules of procedure governing the arbitration. No award or relief will be granted by the arbitrator except on behalf of, or against, a named party.

All claims or disputed factual and legal issues between you and us that arise out of or relate in any way to any aspect of our relationship, interactions, or dealings with each other, including but not limited to your account, any prior account, your Cardmember Agreement with us (including any future amendments), any prior Cardmember Agreement, or our relationship are referred to as "Claims" for purposes of this agreement to arbitrate. Claims include, for example, claims or disputes arising from or relating in any way to transactions involving your account (whether actual, potential, canceled, or other transactions); any interest, charges, or fees assessed on your account; any service(s) or programs related to your account, including but not limited to rewards programs; any communications related to your account; and any collection or credit reporting of your account. Claims also include claims or disputes arising from or relating in any way to advertising and solicitations, or the application for, approval or denial, or establishment of your account. Claims are subject to arbitration regardless of whether they are based on contract, tort, statute, regulation, common law or equity, or whether they seek legal or equitable remedies. All Claims are subject to arbitration whether they arose in the past, may currently exist, or may arise in the future. Arbitration will apply even if your account is closed, sold, or assigned; you pay us in full any outstanding debt you owe; or you file for bankruptcy. In the event that your account is sold and/or assigned, we retain our right to elect arbitration of Claims by you and you retain your right to elect arbitration of Claims by us.

- If you are covered by the Military Lending Act, then you are not bound by this arbitration agreement, and to the extent required by the Military Lending Act, nothing in this agreement will be deemed a waiver of the right to legal recourse under any otherwise applicable provision of state or federal law.

The only other exception to the arbitration requirement is that you and we have the right to file and pursue a Claim in a small claims court instead of arbitration if the Claim is in that court's jurisdiction and proceeds on an individual basis.

If you initiate a Claim in arbitration, no changes to the terms of this agreement to arbitrate that are made after we receive your Claim will apply to that Claim.

This agreement to arbitrate is governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq. with respect to both substance and procedure.

Can I (the customer) reject this agreement to arbitrate?

Yes. You have the right to reject this agreement to arbitrate if you notify us within 60 days of account opening. You must do so in writing by stating that you reject this agreement to arbitrate and include your name, account number, address and personal signature. Your notice must be mailed to us at P.O. Box 15298, Wilmington, DE 19850-5298. Rejection notices sent to any other address, or sent by electronic mail or communicated orally, will not be accepted or effective. If you already have pending litigation or arbitration against/with us when you opt out, any request to opt out of this arbitration clause will not apply to that litigation or arbitration. Opting out of this agreement to arbitrate will not affect the other provisions of this agreement. If you validly opt out of this agreement to arbitrate, your decision to opt out will apply only to this arbitration agreement and not any other arbitration agreement or any accounts for which the opt out period has already passed.

What about class actions or representative actions?

Individuals sometimes seek to bring lawsuits on behalf of other, similarly situated individuals. This is often called a class action. Class actions, other similar representative procedures, and consolidation of Claims (except for claimants on the same account) are not available under this agreement to arbitrate. Claims in arbitration will proceed only on an individual basis. Additionally, you may not join your claims with other persons on other accounts in the arbitration; each person must arbitrate his or her own claims separately.

UNLESS YOU REJECT THIS AGREEMENT TO ARBITRATE, YOU AND WE ARE WAIVING THE RIGHT TO ASSERT OR PARTICIPATE IN A CLASS ACTION, PRIVATE ATTORNEY GENERAL PROCEEDING, OR ANY REPRESENTATIVE OR CONSOLIDATED PROCEEDING IN COURT OR IN ARBITRATION. YOU AND WE FURTHER AGREE NOT TO SEEK ANY AWARD OR REMEDY IN ARBITRATION AGAINST OR ON BEHALF OF ANYONE WHO IS NOT A NAMED PARTY TO THE ARBITRATION, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO PUBLIC INJUNCTIVE RELIEF. FOR THE AVOIDANCE OF DOUBT, IF SUCH A CLAIM IS MADE, THE ARBITRATOR IS PROHIBITED FROM GRANTING THE REQUESTED RELIEF.

Any question regarding the enforceability or interpretation of this section ("What about class actions or representative actions?") shall be decided by a court and not the arbitrator. If a court determines that any of the terms of this section are legally unenforceable for any reason with respect to a Claim or request for relief sought in connection with a Claim, then you and we agree that the arbitration and litigation shall proceed as follows: (1) all Claims or requests for relief for which arbitration is legally enforceable must be filed and adjudicated in arbitration; (2) any Claims or requests for relief for which arbitration is not legally enforceable will be decided through litigation in court; (3) any Claims or requests for relief that are to be decided through litigation in court will be stayed pending completion of the arbitration of all other Claims or requests for relief; and (4) when litigation in court resumes, the Court will not be bound by any determination made by the arbitrator. By way of example, if a Claim seeks both public injunctive relief and other relief, and the prohibition on an award of public injunctive relief is found to be unenforceable, then the request for public injunctive relief will be decided in litigation in court after Claims seeking other relief had been adjudicated in arbitration on an individual basis. For the avoidance of doubt, no arbitrator shall have authority to entertain any Claim on behalf of a person who is not a named party, nor shall any arbitrator have authority to make any award for the benefit of, or against, any person who is not a named party.

How does arbitration work?

Arbitration is different from a lawsuit in state or federal court. Arbitration is conducted by private organizations that specialize in alternative dispute resolution, and is conducted before a neutral arbitrator instead of a judge or jury. Arbitration procedures are generally simpler and more informal than court procedures. For example, discovery is more limited in arbitration than in court. Also, arbitrator decisions are subject to only limited review by courts. As discussed above, certain rights that you may have in court are not available in arbitration. At the same time, in arbitration you are entitled to recover attorneys' fees from us to the same extent as you would be in court.

Under this agreement to arbitrate, the party filing a Claim must do so with the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") as the arbitration administrator. AAA shall apply its Consumer Arbitration Rules in effect at the time the arbitration is commenced and the Mass Arbitration Supplementary Rules to mass arbitration matters including the additional rules explained below ("What about mass arbitration matters?"). (The Consumer Arbitration Rules are currently available at https://www.adr.org/sites/default/files/Consumer%20Rules.pdf, and the Mass Arbitration Supplementary Rules are currently available at https://www.adr.org/sites/default/files/Mass_Arbitration_Supplementary_Rules.pdf). If there is a conflict between that code of procedures and this arbitration provision and/or any sections of this agreement, this arbitration provision and/or this agreement will control. In the event that the AAA is unable or unwilling to handle the Claim for any reason, then the matter shall be arbitrated instead by a neutral arbitrator selected by agreement of the parties (or, if the parties cannot agree, selected by a court in accordance with the Federal Arbitration Act).

A single arbitrator shall conduct proceedings under the Consumer Arbitration Rules, and a Process Arbitrator and single Merits Arbitrator shall conduct each mass arbitration case. The arbitrator is bound by the terms of this agreement to arbitrate. All issues are for the arbitrator to decide, except that issues relating to the scope, enforceability, interpretation, formation, and validity of this arbitration agreement are for a court to decide. The Parties agree that, upon motion by either of us, any arbitrator shall have the power to decide dispositive issues of law prior to hearing, consistent with Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 12 and 56, and will decide the Claim in accordance with all applicable substantive law, including statutes of limitation, whether you have completed the steps necessary to initiate the suit, and recognized principles of equity, and will honor all claims of privilege recognized by law. Subject to the prohibition on class, representative, and consolidation procedures set forth above, the arbitrator will have the power to award to a party any damages or other relief provided for under applicable law. That is, a party will be entitled to recover in arbitration any damages or other relief that it could recover if it prevailed in a court proceeding as an individual. No arbitration award or decision will have any preclusive effect on issues or claims in any subsequent proceedings beyond the Claims at issue. The arbitrator's authority is limited to claims between you and us, and the arbitrator can award damages or relief only to you, but not to or on behalf of anyone else.

All pleadings, information and documents exchanged, and the arbitrator's ruling shall be treated as confidential. However, if either Party seeks to confirm the arbitrator's decision in court, the Parties agree that the documents necessary for such confirmation need not be filed under seal.

Although under some laws we may have a right to an award of attorneys' fees and expenses if we prevail, we agree that we will not seek such an award. We may recover our attorneys' fees under the Cardmember Agreement if we are successful in our Claim to collect a delinquent balance from you.

If your Claim is for $10,000 or less, you may choose whether the arbitration will be conducted solely on the basis of documents, through a telephonic hearing, or in an in-person hearing. Any in-person hearing will take place in the federal judicial district that includes your address at the time the Claim is filed, unless the parties agree to a different place.

Is the arbitrator's decision final? Is there an appeal process?

Unless appealed pursuant to the terms in this section, the arbitration ruling will be considered final, binding, and enforceable by any court having jurisdiction. A party may file a notice of appeal pursuant to and governed by the AAA's Optional Appellate Arbitration Rules, currently available at https://www.adr.org/sites/default/files/AAA-ICDR_Optional_Appellate_Arbitration_Rules.pdf. A party may only appeal on the grounds that the Arbitration Award is based upon (1) an error of law that is material and prejudicial (reviewed de novo) and/or (2) determination of facts that are erroneous (reviewed for clear error). The appeal tribunal shall render its decision exclusively on the record before the arbitrator. For the avoidance of doubt, and consistent with AAA Optional Appellate Arbitration Rule A-19, under no circumstances shall the appeal tribunal order a new arbitration hearing or send the case back to the original arbitrator.

Who will pay for costs?

Each Party will be responsible for the arbitration costs as allocated by the applicable AAA rules (www.adr.org). However, except for Claims filed as part of a mass arbitration, if the arbitrator ultimately rules in your favor, you will be entitled to reimbursement by Chase for all fees you paid to the AAA. If you consider that you are unable to afford any fees that would be yours to pay to the arbitration administrator, you may request that we reimburse them, and we will consider your request in good faith.

You may represent yourself in arbitration, or you may be represented by a lawyer. Except as described above, you will be responsible for your own attorneys' fees and costs.

How do I (the customer) file an arbitration claim?

Rules and forms may be obtained from, and Claims may be filed with, the AAA at (877) 495-4185 or www.adr.org.

What about mass arbitration matters?

You agree that these additional requirements ("Mass Arbitration Procedures") shall apply to your Claim if it is filed as part of a "mass arbitration," which means twenty-five (25) or more arbitration claims involving the same or similar subject matter and/or issues of law or fact, and where representation of all claimants is the same or coordinated across the cases. You understand and agree that these procedures related to mass arbitrations will apply and that they are designed to (a) lead to the streamlined and cost-effective resolution of claims; (b) ensure that large volume filings do not impose unnecessary burdens or impediments to the resolution and cost-effective adjudication of your Claim and similar claims; and (c) preserve the integrity of the arbitration process. You agree to these procedures even though they may delay the arbitration of your individual claim. If at any point you are unsatisfied with the speed by which your matter is proceeding, you are free to withdraw your arbitration demand and proceed in small claims court if the Claim is in that court's jurisdiction and proceeds on an individual basis.

1. Mass Arbitration Filing Requirements: In addition to the requirements set forth in the AAA Mass Arbitration Supplementary Rules, you agree that upon commencing a case with the AAA, you will provide your name, full Chase account number, mailing address, telephone number, email address, a factual description of every disputed transaction for which you seek compensation (date, amount, and transaction) and/or event (date, location, and individuals involved), explanation of the basis of your Claim, an itemized calculation of all alleged damages, and, if represented by counsel, a signed statement authorizing us to share information regarding your account and the Claim with them. You agree and understand that failure to provide this information may result in dismissal of your Claim, though you have the right to refile once you provide the information described in the previous sentence.
2. Process Arbitrator Appointment: You and Chase agree that before an arbitrator is assigned to determine the merit of your claim, a "Process Arbitrator" will be appointed. The Process Arbitrator will have the authority to ensure these Mass Arbitration Procedures and the AAA rules are followed. The Parties agree that the Process Arbitrator will be selected by the process set forth in AAA Mass Arbitration Supplementary Rule MA-7(a). In short, each Party will receive a list of proposed Process Arbitrators provided by the AAA and will meet and confer to identify a mutually-agreeable candidate. If the Parties cannot agree, they will submit their preferences to the AAA, and the AAA will select a Process Arbitrator.
3. Matters To Be Decided by a Process Arbitrator: In addition to the authority outlined in AAA Mass Arbitration Supplementary Rules, the parties agree that the Process Arbitrator shall be empowered to resolve any dispute regarding whether your Claim should be dismissed because, for example, you failed to comply with the Mass Arbitration Filing Requirements, any other requirements outlined in this agreement, or any other reason. You agree that if the Process Arbitrator finds you failed to comply with any requirement, your claim will be dismissed, without prejudice to refiling once the deficiencies are remedied. The Process Arbitrator will also have the power to decide whether, based on the information submitted in the Mass Arbitration Filing Requirements, there are other threshold eligibility issues for your case to proceed, including but not limited to whether you had an account at Chase, experienced the transaction, fee, or event at issue, or otherwise cannot pursue the claim due to a clear legal or factual deficiency, and to dismiss your claim as appropriate. The Process Arbitrator shall have the power to determine whether or not a given dispute regarding these Mass Arbitration Filing Requirements and/or Procedures are within their jurisdiction. The Process Arbitrator shall be authorized to afford any relief or impose any sanctions available under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11, 28 U.S.C. § 1927, or any applicable state law.

4. Mass Arbitration Procedures: Following the resolution of any disputes within the jurisdiction of the Process Arbitrator, if any, counsel for the claimants and counsel for Chase shall each select fifteen (15) cases (per side) to proceed first in individual arbitration proceedings on the merits of each claim. Unless the Parties otherwise agree, in no event shall any individual Merits Arbitrator be assigned more than three (3) cases. No AAA per case fee shall be assessed in connection with any case until they are selected to proceed to individual arbitration proceedings as part of the process identified in this section. The Parties agree that each side shall have the right to have fifteen (15) cases of their choosing proceed to final hearing before the process described in this section moves forward. After the first thirty (30) cases are resolved, counsel will meet and confer regarding ways to improve the efficiency of the proceedings, including whether to mediate or change the number of cases filed in each stage. If the Parties are unable to resolve the remaining cases after the conclusion of the initial thirty (30) proceedings and conferring in good faith, each side shall select another fifteen (15) cases (per side) to proceed to individual arbitration proceedings. Each of these thirty (30) cases shall be assigned to a different Merits Arbitrator, though if the Parties otherwise agree, a single Merits Arbitrator may be assigned up to three (3) cases. No AAA per case fee shall be assessed in connection with the remaining cases until they are selected to proceed to individual arbitration proceedings as part of the process identified in this section. After this second set of thirty (30) cases are resolved, counsel will again meet and confer regarding ways to improve the efficiency of the proceedings, including whether to mediate or change the number of cases filed in each stage. If the Parties do not reach a global resolution after the second set of cases are resolved, on either Party's motion, the Process Arbitrator can decide to expedite the proceedings by forgoing more rounds of case selection and instead assigning Merits Arbitrators to all of the remaining cases at once. If no motion is made, this Mass Arbitration Procedure shall continue with thirty (30) cases in each set of proceedings, consistent with the parameters identified above. You and Chase agree to engage in these Mass Arbitration Procedures in good faith, which includes an agreement to pay the Parties' respective case fee if your case is selected. Any dispute regarding any aspect of the specific Mass Arbitration Procedures outlined in this section shall be resolved by the Process Arbitrator.

5. Interpretation and Enforcement of Mass Arbitration Provision: Any dispute regarding the interpretation or enforcement of these mass arbitration procedures shall be decided by the Process Arbitrator or, in cases that have been released to merits proceedings, the Merits Arbitrator. Their decisions regarding the mass arbitrations process and procedures shall be considered interlocutory in nature and not subject to immediate judicial review. If any terms of these Mass Arbitration Procedures are found to be legally unenforceable for any reason, then the proceedings shall otherwise continue in arbitration in accordance with AAA's Mass Arbitration Supplementary rules.
